9. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 2234 (b) of the in that his treatment and care of patient J.M.¹ constitutes gross negligence. The instances are as follows:

10. On or about May 2, 2006, J.M., a twenty-four year old female patient and mother, presented to respondent at Kaiser Hospital in Sacramento, California, for a preoperative visit relative to planned breast reduction surgery to be performed by respondent. J.M. was directed to an examination room and instructed to remove her top and bra and put a paper gown

^{1.} Patient names are abbreviated herein to protect patient privacy rights. The patients' full names and relevant medical records will be provided upon receipt of a properly executed and served Request For Discovery.

on. Respondent then entered the room and, with no third person present, examined the patient's breasts, placing surgical markings on the breasts with a marking pen. Respondent pinched the patient's nipples, informing her this was necessary in order to make her nipples stay erect for photographs, which respondent then took of the patient's breasts. Respondent also photographed the patient's right wrist. Respondent then asked J.M. to disrobe for a physical examination. J.M. removed her pants but left her underpants on. Respondent told J.M. to remove her underpants so he could examine her vaginal area. Respondent apologized for not having an examination table with stirrups for a "proper exam". At no time did respondent provide J.M. with a medical justification for conducting a vaginal exam, nor did respondent afford the patient the opportunity to object. As soon as J.M. had exposed her vaginal area, without explaining the reason therefor, respondent asked J.M. to use her fingers to spread the labia of her vagina open. Respondent then photographed the patient's vaginal area. Respondent then inserted one finger quickly in and out of the patient's vagina. Respondent then instructed J.M. to dress and leave. Respondent failed to ask the patient for or acquire her consent to photograph her, including her vaginal area. Respondent also failed to document in the patient's chart any record of his conducting a pelvic or genital examination of the patient. In addition, respondent failed to document the patient's preoperative history and physical examination.

NINTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Gross Negligence)
[Bus. & Prof. Code Section 2234 (b)]

- 28. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 2234 (b) of the Code in that his treatment and care of patient C.J. constitutes gross negligence. The circumstances are as follows:
- 29. On or about April 18, 2002, C.J., a thirty-two year old female, presented to respondent at Kaiser Hospital in Sacramento, California, for a preoperative examination relative to planned breast reduction surgery. Respondent examined C.J. in an examination room with no third party chaperone present. He initially instructed C.J. to disrobe from the waist up, examined her breasts, and marked them for surgery with a marking pen. Respondent then instructed the patient to fully disrobe and said he needed to take photos of her labia to make sure her nipple color matched her vagina. The patient was uncomfortable with this examination because she was menstruating at the time. She advised respondent she was uncomfortable, but he indicated that this was not a problem. Respondent used his hand to spread apart her labia and then photographed her vaginal area. Respondent made no medical record of this vaginal examination and photography.
- 30. Respondent's examination and photography of patient C.J.'s vaginal area without a third party chaperone present and without a bona fide medical indication therefor constitutes gross negligence subject to discipline within the meaning of section 2234 (b) of the Code.

TENTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Sexual Misconduct)
[Bus. & Prof. Code Section 726]

- 31. Complainant re-alleges paragraph 29, above, and incorporates it by reference as if fully set forth at this point.
- 32. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 726 of the Code in that his examination and photography of patient C.J.'s vaginal area without a third party chaperone present and without a bona fide medical indication therefor constitutes sexual misconduct.

1 2	ELEVENTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE (Failure to Keep and Maintain Adequate and Accurate Records) [Bus. & Prof. Code Section 2266]
3	33. Complainant re-alleges paragraph 29, above, and incorporates it by
4	reference as if fully set forth at this point.
5	34. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 2266 of the
6	Code in that he failed to make any medical record of his examination and photographing of
7	patient C.J.'s vaginal area.
8	TWELFTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE (Gross Negligence) [Bus. & Prof. Code Section 2234 (b)]
10	35. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 2234 (b) of the
11	Code in that his treatment and care of patient M.O. constitutes gross negligence. The
12	circumstances are as follows:
13	36. On or about April19, 2002, M.O., a twenty-three year old female,
14	presented to respondent at Kaiser Hospital in Sacramento, California, for consultation in
15	anticipation of breast reduction surgery. M. O. saw respondent several times prior to her surgery.
16	On or about May 17, 2002, her sister, O.E., accompanied M.O. as she presented to respondent for
17	a pre-surgery examination. Respondent informed M.O. that he needed to examine her vagina in
18	order to obtain a color match for her nipple. M.O. was disrobed for the examination.
19	Respondent used his ungloved hand to spread the labia of her vagina and photographed her
20	vagina. Respondent did not examine or photograph M.O. during any one of three other
21	preoperative visits. Respondent failed to note or record his examination of patient M.O.'s pelvic
22	area and vagina in her patient medical record.
23	37. Respondent's examination and photographing of M.O.'s vagina prior to
24	breast augmentation surgery, without medical justification therefor, constitutes gross negligence
25	subject to discipline within the meaning of section 2234 (b) of the Code.
26	THIRTEENTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE (Sexual Misconduct)
27	[Bus. & Prof. Code Section 726]
28	38. Complainant re-alleges paragraph 36, above, and incorporates it by reference as if fully set forth at this point.

39. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 726 of the Code in that his unwarranted examination and photographing of patient M.O.'s vagina constitutes sexual misconduct.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Failure to Keep and Maintain Adequate and Accurate Records)
[Bus. & Prof. Code Section 2266]

- 40. Complainant re-alleges paragraph 36, above, and incorporates it by reference as if fully set forth at this point.
- 41. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 2266 of the Code in that he failed to record his examination and photographing of patient M.O.'s vagina.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Gross Negligence)
[Bus. & Prof. Code Section 2234 (b)]

- 42. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 2234 (b) of the Code in that his treatment and care of patient A.T. constitutes gross negligence. The circumstances are as follows:
- 43. In or about April of 2001, A.T., a twenty-one year old woman, presented to respondent for breast reduction. A.T. saw respondent on two occasions to consult regarding the surgery. During the initial visit a nurse was present with respondent and nothing untoward occurred. A second consultation occurred during which A.T. was accompanied by her mother. Again, nothing untoward occurred. Then, on or about July 25, 2001, A.T. presented to respondent for her preoperative history and examination. A.T. was accompanied by her mother, but on this occasion her mother remained in the waiting room. Staff asked A.T. to disrobe from the waist up in the examining room. Respondent then entered the room alone. He photographed A.T.'s breasts, first pinching her nipples to make them erect. Respondent then directed the patient to get down on all fours so her breasts would hang down independently. Respondent then instructed A.T. to remove her underpants. Respondent remained in the room and watched while the patient undressed. A.T. asked respondent why this further examination was necessary. Respondent stated that her areolae were stretched and he needed to color match her nipples to her

ll ll
1	vagina. Respondent directed A.T. to lay back with her feet flat on a table and to spread her knees
2	apart. There were no stirrups on the table. Respondent then directed A.T. to use her hands to
3	spread her labia apart and he photographed her vagina. Respondent did not ask A.T. if she
4	wanted a third party chaperone present for this examination, nor did he ask her permission to
5	photograph her vagina. Respondent failed to document his pelvic examination and photographing
6	of patient A.T's vagina in her medical record.
7	44. Respondent's unwarranted examination and photographing of A.T.'s
8	vagina, offering a medically specious explanation to the patient therefor, constitutes gross
9	negligence subject to discipline within the meaning of section 2234 (b) of the Code.
10	Respondent's pinching of the patient's nipples to cause them to be erect for photographing
11	constitutes gross negligence also subject to discipline within the meaning of the Code.
12 13	SIXTEENTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE (Sexual Misconduct) [Bus. & Prof. Code Section 726]
14	45. Complainant re-alleges paragraph 43, above, and incorporates it by
15	reference herein as if fully set forth at this point.
16	46. Respondent is subject to discipline with the meaning of section 726 of the
17	Code in that his unwarranted examination and photographing of A.T.'s vagina and his
18	unwarranted pinching of her nipples to make them erect constitutes sexual misconduct.
19 20	SEVENTEENTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE (Failure to Keep and Maintain Adequate and Accurate Records) [Bus. & Prof. Code Section 2266]
21	47. Complainant re-alleges paragraph 43, above, and incorporates it by
22	reference as if fully set forth at this point.
23	48. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 2266 of the
24	Code in that he failed to adequately and accurately record his examination and photographing of
25	patient A.T.'s vagina.
26	EIGHTEENTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE
27	(Gross Negligence [Bus. & Prof. Code Section 2234 (b)]

Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 2234 (b) of the 49.

- 50. On or about June 16, 1998, patient S.W., a then-seventeen year old female, presented to respondent for preoperative examination following an evaluation of congenital breast asymmetry and a tuberous breast deformity. Respondent had previously recommended breast reduction surgery, to be followed by bilateral breast augmentation. The preoperative examination occurred at Kaiser Hospital in Sacramento. During the examination, respondent informed S.W. that he needed to examine her vaginal area so he could "color match" her nipple(s) to the vaginal tissue. S.W.'s mother was present during this examination. Respondent then examined the patient's vaginal area and held a "paint chip" next to her vagina and photographed her vaginal area next to the "paint chip". Respondent failed to document this examination and photography in the patient record, although he did record the fact that he 12 conducted a "Preop H & P" without providing the details thereof. The patient subsequently 14 underwent the planned surgery without incident.
 - 51. Because there was no medical indication for respondent to conduct an examination of patient S.W.'s vaginal area and because his explanation that he needed to "color match" the patient's nipple(s) to her vagina has no medical basis, respondent's conduct relative to patient S.W. constitutes gross negligence subject to discipline within the meaning of section 2234 (b) of the Code.

NINETEENTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Sexual Misconduct) [Bus. & Prof. Code Section 726]

- 52. Complainant re-alleges paragraph 50, above, and incorporates it by reference herein as if fully set forth at this point.
- 53. Respondent is subject to discipline under section 726 of the Code in that his medically unwarranted examination of patient S.W.'s vaginal area and photographing of her vaginal area for the purported reason that he needed to "color match" her nipple(s) to the vagina, constitutes sexual misconduct.

TWENTIETH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Failure to Keep and Maintain Adequate and Accurate Records)
[Bus. & Prof. Code Section 2266]

- 54. Complainant re-alleges paragraph 50, above, and incorporates it by reference herein as if fully set forth at this point.
- 55. Respondent is subject to discipline under section 2266 of the Code in that his failure to record the details of his examination and photography of patient S.W.'s vaginal area constitutes a failure to keep and maintain adequate and accurate patient records.

TWENTY-FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Gross Negligence)
[Bus. & Prof. Code Section 2234 (b)]

- 56. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 2234 (b) of the Code in that his treatment and care of patient R.G. constitutes gross negligence. The circumstances are as follows:
- 57. On or about April 11, 2006, R.G., a twenty-five year old female with an operable melanoma lesion on her right upper chest, underwent surgery to remove the lesion with Dr. Carlos Perez at Kaiser Hospital in Sacramento, CA. Dr. Perez and respondent were "cosurgeons" on the procedure, and respondent performed a "cerclage" partial closure of the patient's chest wound. Respondent thereafter ordered that a "wound vac" be utilized to assist with the patient's healing of the wound, beginning on or about April 14, 2006. Respondent subsequently scheduled the patient for additional surgery for excision of the wound and full thickness skin grafting in the right upper chest area. On or about May 2, 2006, R.G. and her mother presented to respondent for a preoperative visit. Respondent asked the patient to disrobe for the examination. The patient left her underwear on. Respondent informed R.G. that the skin planned skin graft could be taken either from her groin or her lower buttock. Respondent drew a line with a marking pen on the patient's upper thigh to indicate where the skin for the graft might be harvested. Respondent asked R.G. to remove her underwear so he could better evaluate. Respondent then asked R.G. to pose in various positions, with her hips and legs raised in what the patient felt was a sexually suggestive manner, while respondent took several photographs while the patient was on her stomach, with her rear quarters raised, and on her back with her legs

1	raised. The patient's vaginal area and genitalia were visibly exposed in the photo(s). At no time
2	did respondent offer to drape the patient's private areas or otherwise provide for patient modesty
3	during his examination and photography of her private areas. Respondent offered no
4	explanation, medical or otherwise, as to why the patient's genital area needed to be exposed or
5	photographed. Respondent failed to document either this examination or the photography in the
6	patient record, making no record whatsoever of this patient visit and preoperative examination.
7	58. Respondent's examination and photographing of patient R.G.'s vaginal
8	area and genitalia incident to his examination of the patient for skin graft to repair an upper chest
9	surgical wound, without offering or enabling the patient an opportunity to drape her genital area,
10	constitutes gross negligence within the meaning of section 2234 (b) of the Code.
11 12	TWENTY-SECOND CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE (Sexual Misconduct) [Bus. & Prof. Code Section 726]
13	59. Complainant re-alleges paragraph 57, above, and incorporates it by
14	reference herein as if fully set forth at this point.
15	60. Respondent's examination and photographing of the patient's vaginal area
16	and genitalia, and his posing of the patient in sexually suggestive positions for the supposed
17	purpose of photographing skin graft areas, constitutes sexual misconduct within the meaning of
18	section 726 of the Code.
19	TWENTY-THIRD CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE
20	(Failure to Keep and Maintain Adequate and Accurate Records) [Bus. & Prof. Code Section 2266]
21	61. Complainant re-alleges paragraph 57, above, and incorporates it by
22	reference herein as if fully set forth at this point.
23	62. Respondent is subject to discipline under section 2266 of the Code in that
24	his failure to document patient R.G.'s preoperative visit and the details of his examination and
25	photography of the patient constitutes a failure to keep and maintain adequate and accurate
26	records.

TWENTY-FOURTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Gross Negligence)
[Bus. & Prof. Code Section 2234 (b)]

- 63. Respondent is subject to discipline under section 2234 (b) of the Code in that his treatment and care of patient J.S. constitutes gross negligence. The circumstances are as follows:
- on or about September 29, 1998, B.W., a then-fourteen year old girl, presented to respondent at Kaiser Hospital in Sacramento, California, for a consultation regarding breast asymmetry. The patient was accompanied by her mother. Respondent informed the patient that he needed to determine whether she was done developing and said he could determine this from the color of her vagina. Respondent asked the patient to disrobe and recline on an examination table with her feet in stirrups. Respondent spread the patient's labia of her vagina. Respondent then held a "color chart" next to the patient's vagina. He photographed her vaginal area. Respondent then informed the patient and her mother that the color of her vagina indicated that she was not through developing and should return in one year for reevaluation. Respondent failed to record the consultation and examination of this patient. The patient decided not to return.
